THE LIFE CHALLENGE

CONNECT

On Sunday, we were able to enjoy celebrating 6 baptisms and many more people joining in membership. Share about which story or person stood out to you and why?

IDENTITY

If circumcision and baptism are both outward signs of the inward heart, why do you think these kinds of sacramental and symbolic acts are important? What other things are like this?

If remembering our identity in Jesus is critical for our journey in this world, how do you remind yourself of this daily (or not)?

BAPTISM IS an OUTWARD sign of the INWARD heart

THE EXAMEN

Out of Paul's three images for Christian transformation, which one do you struggle most to believe in this season? (don't worry, we all battle this in different forms)

Read the whole passage of Colossians 2:6-15 again. What jumps out to you this time?

PRACTICE

After the encouragement of verses 6 & 7, Paul gives a caution: "See to it that no one takes you captive". The truths Paul proclaims in the verses that follow are critical for our battle. What is a practice you do (or could start) that would daily remind you of these powerful truths from Scripture?

Dead or Alive
Numb. Playing the church game.

In-Debt or Free
Shame never ends.
Never good enough for God.

Captive or Victor
Battle with addiction, powers, lies or old thinking.

PRAY TOGETHER

Listening Together. Take a few moments to wait quietly together. Choose one of the images to consider with Jesus. Alive with Him. Freed and forgiven in Him. Victorious in His victory. Is there anything Jesus wants to show you, say to you, or invite you into as you listen?

If you are willing share with one another. Then pray together.
